

LAMIANA® ROERO ARNEIS

Controlled and Guaranteed Designation of Origin

The Roero is a small area located to the left of Tanaro river, equidistant from both Alba and Asti. Here some lands among which definitely the Lamiana (Teo Costa property) are particularly rich in sand and limestone marls. On these hills often extremely steep and irregular, the Arneis grape was born and gives the maximum of itself. It is an ancient autochthonous variety, for long century forgotten that is back in the spotlight in the last 20 years with excellent results. Its characteristics are the elegance, the delicacy and the extreme harmony.

Type of wine: white wine, good body, great for appetizers, for light dishes and fish.

Vineyard location: Municipality of Castellinaldo, Lamiana locality.

Soil and exposure: sandy, light with good permeability. East exposure.

Grape variety: 100% Arneis
